IT'S NOT YOUR HEART;

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Kidney disease is no respecter of persons. A majority of the ills afflicting people today can be traced back to the kidney trouble.

The kidneys are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters of your blood. If the poisons which are swept from the tissues by the blood are not eliminated through the kidneys, disease of one form or another will claim you as a victim.

Kidney disease is usually indicated by weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, dizziness, backache, stomach trouble, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gait, stammer, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago.

All these derangements are nature's signals that the kidneys need help.

You should use GOLD MEDAL HAZEL OIL Capsules immediately. The soothing, healing oil stimulates the kidneys, relieves inflammation, and destroys the germs which have caused the trouble.

Go to your druggist today and get a box of GOLD MEDAL HAZEL OIL Capsules. In ten days you will feel better and your kidneys will be restored to normal.

After you feel somewhat improved continue to take one or two capsules each day, so as to keep the first-class condition and ward off the danger of other attacks.

Ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. Three aises. Money refunded if they do not help you.

FRED FULTON NOW TO PASS THE BUCK

Fred Fulton, alleged fighter, who recently decided to leave the state to make his home with Jack Dempsey at Harrison, N. J., last summer and then was "double crossed," is trying to make his home with the mess. Having been unmercifully panned and discredited by fight critics all over the country, Fulton now is preparing an alibi. He is going to "pass the buck." The faint hearted plasterer is about to tell the sporting world that certain persons in San Francisco who wanted to queer Dempsey out of the match with Willard made him stand for the story of the "frame up" and the "double cross." Fulton, according to the latest information from the coast, is eager to repudiate his charges, so that he will be restored to good standing and can get back to good standing and can get back to the winner of the Willard-Dempsey affair. Fine business.

CONTRACT SIGNED IN DINGY FERRY HOUSE

There is a war story in the dingy ferry house at Westhampton that for years to come will be pointed out by commuters to Jersey if Jack Dempsey wins the championship from Jess Willard next July. It was on that grimy ledge that Promoter Ted Rickard and the young contender from the west signed the papers that closed the deal for the largest purse in the history of the ring. A crowd of newspaper men and a few travelers saw the ceremony performed and except those in the party few knew what was going on. Dempsey lost no time in affixing his signature to the papers. The only thing that worried him was that Rickard might change his mind before the contract was made binding by signing in a state where boxing is legalized.

Dempsey explained to Rickard that it made no difference where the affair is held just as long as it carries with it the title to the winner. Both Kearns and Dempsey tried to make Rickard place a clause in the contract which would insist that the bout go to a decision, but Rickard demurred on the ground that a new contract with those circumstances, however, Rickard gave a verbal promise that there would be a decision if the law did not prevent.
